Ramalingaswami Re-entry Fellowship(RRF) Programme

The aim of the programme is to encourage scientists (Indian Nationals) working outside the country, who would like to return to the home country to pursue their research in Life Sciences, Biotechnology, and other related areas. The scheme has become highly popular and has attracted talented pool of scientists below 45 years of age to pursue mainstream research in various institutes in India. Up to 75 fellows are offered fellowships each year under this program.
